The trail in Belgium is my next one. It's through the beautiful landscapes of Belgium. I hope it will not rain, since it's quite cold there already. So the forecast changes quite often from 80% raining chance to 10% rain. But with only 4 degrees over the day and -2 in the night. Let's see how it will work out on Sunday.

See the link at http://www.courirpourleplaisir.be/html/v_3/p_1.html for registering to this trail. It will be about 69km and 2100 meters in height. So it's long but not so hilly. It will be in a part of Belgium I know quite well from my time in Aachen, Germany. I have been there very often by racing bike through the Belgian landscape (Ardennes). It's near Lüttich (Liege) and Maastricht. The trail will go to SPA, I think most people know this town from the Formula 1 races. I will be happy that day to go by feet. :-). The race started about 10 years ago and nowadays there are about 300-400 participants.

It starts at "Hall Omnisport à Froidbermont (Olne)" on the 25.11.2012 in Olne at 8 o'clock. Costs are 10 euro only. That sounds really great. Every 16 km there is a point with supplies.
