

60km/4300H, Trail del cinghiale, UTMB 2 points, 1.12.2012

That the next one.

The Trail del cinghiale starts at 6 o'clock in the morning. It seems like the first race of that type and i will be in the beatiful area around ravenna in italy. For the 60 km you have to make two rounds and you will come back after the first round to the start, where you will go for the last part. The race will give 2 points for the UTMB.

In ravenna it is warmer then in switzerland currently and about 10-15 degrees.
